

Research Summary

I am pleased to report the Foundation that my work is already completed. My two advisers, Prof. Dr. Chatthif Narthsupa and Prof. Eiji Murashima have seen a final draft. I hope a published book can be shown to the public soon.

I have found that doing this work provides me much advantages. As a teacher I have much more knowledge to give to my students. As a researcher I have created a new knowledge for academic society.

Moreover, I am sure that my work can give a better understanding to each other between the Thai and the Japanese or ground that the past always shines to the present.
